Dress a Girl Around the World

*****

Our Fall Festival Was Fabulous!

We had such a great time at our festival! We ate hotdogs and chips! We drank sodas and slurpies! Popcorn! Baked Goods! Cotton Candy! We bounced in bouncy houses! Played lawn games! We shopped and bought sauces and jams! Craft items and raffle tickets! We signed up for door prizes! We visited with friends and neighbors and met new friends!

Kids were excited to win kid raffle baskets and adults loved the garden, baking and charcuterie baskets! Girls were given jump ropes and boys received wooden cars.

The weather was beautiful and spirits were high as we celebrated the beginning of Fall together!

The grand prizes were drawn and Twila won the canner/pressure cooker while Janet won the bicycle!

I'd say the day was a great success and we look forward to hosting another Fall Festival next year!

Thank you to our sponsors! The Hanson Foundation, Edward Jones, Walmart, Hope 4 Women International and My Pink Country Life! Thank you to the volunteers and all who attended!

Now we need to get busy and be ready for our November Craft and Christmas Sale!

WOMEN SPONSORSHIP!

Angelina never had the privilege of attending school as her parents lacked school fees. She is the mother of seven living children—her first ten babies died.

Currently Angelina has no means of income and no business as she lacks start up capital.

Her goal is to sell charcoal and firewood once God opens the door for sponsorship. Then she hopes to receive treatment for her ulcers.

Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after widows and orphans in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world. James 1:27

For $36 a month for one year you can sponsor Angelina or another widow in need.

Please contact Lisa@h4wi.org to sign up! today!

Sponsor a Woman!

Rescue a woman from the grips of poverty and change her destiny!

Your tax-deductible one year commitment of $36 a month will enroll a woman in our women in business program in Uganda! At the end of one year she will graduate with a business of her own.

AMBASSADOR NEWS!

Wake Up Little Suzy Craft and Things!

Our own Suzanne Beck has a great website for you to shop and enjoy! She says:

“In addition to being a Dress-a-Girl Ambassador, I have a small online craft business. I've recently added a line of adorable shaped buttons (Dress It Up, which many are probably familiar with) to my inventory. These retail for $4-5 at our craft stores, and we love using them on our dresses, but sometimes they are just too pricey. So I was able to get them for my business and I want to offer a 20% discount for Dress-a-Girl folks so you can use them on dresses. Please feel free to share this info with your Dress-a-Girl sewers (and actually the website platform is a pretty rough one, so if you enter the discount code, it actually should take it off your whole order, buttons and all!)

Our Denver Dress a Girl Ambassador

On September 1, 2022, I delivered 37 dresses and 37 purses to Rachel at Dressa Girl Headquarters in Forest City, Iowa. I started making dresses after my mom passed away in 2020. My mom, Darlene Mishek, liked the idea of pillowcase dresses after I told her about 100-year-old Eva's story about Operation Christmas Child that I had watched on Facebook. When I found a bolt of beautiful red floral fabric in my mom's house, I decided to do something productive with it in her memory. I made my first pillowcase dress one year ago, in September 2021. I then shared my project idea with a friend. She joined me and made two dresses. Another friend, Ellen Shamas-Brandt, joined me this last summer and made ten dresses and many drawstring purses. We also presented our project at our sewing machine store in Littleton, Colorado where four more ladies joined us in making more dresses and purses. I received all the dresses and purses, and I packed them in one suitcase. I flew to St. Paul, Minnesota for a family reunion at the end of August 2022. During the trip to Minnesota, I took a road trip to Forest City, Iowa where I delivered the dresses to Rachel at the Dress a Girl headquarters. I had a wonderful visit with Rachel and two other ladies there and enjoyed a fascinating tour of the facility. Ellen and I are very excited to continue our work as co-ambassadors for Dress a Girl. We have already received donated fabric from very generous people in our area to make many dresses and purses for the girls. We have other ladies interested in helping with this cause and I'm very excited to see where this project goes. I am so honored to be a co-ambassador of this amazing organization.
