Dear Christian Friends,

Thank you for your gift to TCM that we received this morning. We are grateful to you for your partnership with us in making disciples and disciple makers for Jesus Christ.

Thank God along with me that Chad and Nicole Dillon and Jacob Jones have received their Austrian residence visas. The wait was long, and we are grateful for this answer.

We are continuing to hold classes for TCM International Institute, both in person and online. Will you pray with me for the students and professors participating in these classes?

Rick Walston: Introduction to Pastoral Counseling

Myron Williams: Practical Ministry Seminary: Creativity and Digital Leadership
